Career Summary

Matt is a second generation real estate professional with over fifteen years of experience, focusing on retail leasing and sale transactions. Since joining the Gallelli Team Retail Specialists in 2012, Matt has been a key member of leasing ground-up shopping centers, redevelopments and stabilizing assets. On the tenant representation side, Matt has played an integral role expanding the footprint of national brands such as Pacific Dental Services and Jersey Mike's Subs.

Matt has spent his entire professional career in brokerage services. After graduating from the University of Redlands in 2009, Matt obtained his real estate license and began his real estate career with a prior real estate firm. He attributes much of his success from receiving the opportunity to join the Gallelli Team who at the time, and to this day is considered to be a market leader within the retail leasing space, among other categories.
